Abstract: The Russian Maps of Foreign Countries Collection includes more than 60 maps of various regions and countries published by the Soviet Union government during the height of the Cold War. The collection emphasizes Russian maps of European and African countries. National maps portray statistical, agricultural, industrial, and climate data, as well as show major roads and cities. Map relief is shown by shading and gradient tints. The bulk of the collection dates from the late 1960s to the early 1970s.

Language of Materials: Russian

Processing Information: Processed by Thomas St. George, with assistance from Chris Salvano, during Spring 2017.
